WHAT'S HAPPENING - April 7

Posted: Thursday, April 7, 2016 8:31 am

Mobile office hours

Staff members of Congressman Jeff Denham, Senator Anthony Cannella and Assemblyman Adam Gray will host "mobile office hours" Friday, April 8, from 9-10 a.m. at Newman City Hall, 938 Fresno St.

The mobile office hours are an opportunity for constituents to meet with legislative staff on issues of concern, specific case work and pending state and federal legislation.

Newman spring cleanup

The city of Newman is hosting its spring cleanup through April 9.

Residents may dispose of unwanted items free of charge at 1420 M St.

Hours are 7:30 a.m. to 3:50 p.m. (open until 6:20 p.m. on Wednesday, April 6).

Residents are asked to show a city of Newman utility bill and driver's license.

No refrigerators, computer monitors or televisions are accepted.

A tire amnesty event will be held in conjunction with the cleanup. Tires may be disposed of at no charge April 4-8 at 712 Fresno St. Hours are 7 a.m. to 4 p.m.

Household hazardous waste

Stanislaus County will host a household hazardous waste event April 8-9 in Newman.

City and county residents may dispose of household hazardous waste from 8 a.m. to noon at the Newman Corporation Yard, 712 Fresno St.

Acceptable items include used oil and filters, batteries, gasoline, anti-freeze, paints and paint thinners, fertilizers, pool chemicals, lighter fluid, propane cylinders (five gallons or less), brake fluid, road flares, drain cleaner, mercury thermometers, pesticides, herbicides, roof tar, kerosene and aerosol products.

Newman Library events

A variety of activities are in store at the Newman branch library in April.

The Newman Library will offer a Latino Access program Thursday (today) at 4 p.m. Latino Access is a free bilingual program that connects individuals with local agencies and resources.

A "Spring is Here" program will be held on Saturday, April 9, at 1:30 p.m. Children can plant seeds to take home and make edible "worms" out of Cheerios.

Children and their parents are invited to the Great Stuffed Animal Sleepover on Tuesday, April 12, at 6:30 p.m. Children are encouraged to dress in their pajamas and bring their stuffed animals to a special bedtime edition of story time. Stuffed animals are invited to spend the night and be picked up on April 13. Photos of the stuffed animals' overnight adventures will be posted in the library's display case.

The library will host LEGO Day on Thursday, April 14, at 3:30 p.m. Children will have the opportunity to create LEGO displays for the library. Children under 4 are welcome to participate under direct parental supervision.
